

FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH
ENTRANCE EXAM SYLLABUS

The exam is based on IGCSE First Language English syllabus and is designed following the format of the Reading Passage and Directed Writing and Composition tasks. Students will have to answer one reading question and one writing question.

Students will be required to demonstrate their ability to:

- read, with insight and engagement, making appropriate references to texts and developing and sustaining interpretations of them;
- distinguish between fact and opinion and evaluate how information is presented;
- follow an argument, identifying implications and recognising inconsistencies;
- select material appropriate to their purpose, collate material from different sources, and make cross-references;
- understand and evaluate how writers use linguistic, structural and presentational devices to achieve their effects, and comment on ways language varies and changes
- express what is thought, felt and imagined;
- order and present facts, ideas and opinions;
- use a range of appropriate vocabulary;
- use language and register appropriate to audience and context
- make accurate and effective use of paragraphs, grammatical structures, sentences, punctuation and spelling.
